

K-Love has and is providing positive and encouraging music to my community. Without this station in progress it would be a detriment to me and my community. K-love has been a major part in my continued close walk with the Lord. I know I am not alone in the benefits this station provides and pray that the programming continues.